EDITORS NOTES

ABOUT FLOW FILM FESTIVAL AND MARKET

From Wednesday 22nd to Sunday 26th September 2021, the second annual FLOW Film Festival and Market offers Miami locals and international film-makers an exciting week of cinema and an excellent opportunity to meet and partner with the kind of behind-the-scenes film industry specialists that film-makers need but may never otherwise meet.

Assuming business reopens as normal from the “Pandemic”, in addition to premieres, red-carpet openings, networking functions and more, the general public and film makers alike will get to meet exhibitors such as distributors, equipment retailers, prop rentals, specialised marketing firms and more; directors, international award-winning film makers, and some special surprise big name guests and speakers. Pre-event parties begin the weekend before.

FLOW Film Festival presents an Official Competition among 8 different categories of films, including a dramatised reading of a winning script. The Awards Ceremony will honour film-makers of all genders across over 20 award categories for films made with women in key non-traditional roles. FLOW stands for Florida Leaders Opening Worlds, because our mission is to open whole new worlds for women film makers, led by leaders of the Florida Film Industry, in partnership with Savor Cinema and the Miami-Dade council.
